

Dear Facilitators,

Welcome to the Marriage Dynamics family! I want to thank you for your commitment of time to bring Dynamic Marriage to your church and community. It is through the commitment of people such as yourselves that we are all able to participate in God's plan of strengthening marriages around the world.

DYNAMIC MARRIAGE

Over the last several months, we have been working behind the scenes to make needed changes in order to serve marriages better! We are excited to be able to bring to you these fresh new promotional items in order to reach more couples! Inside this promotional package you will find many helpful items such as social media post templates, print-ready bulletin inserts, and much more.

Alongside with couples like you, our organization has had the privilege of serving over 75,000 couples in our first 24 years of ministry. We look forward to helping many thousands more experience the joy, meaning and purpose intended for their marriages in the decades to come!

RECRUITING TIPS

Facilitators / Ministry Partners,

As you are planning your next class, contact your Ministry Consultant with the dates of your class so it can be added to the website schedule. If you do not have firm dates set yet, let your Ministry Consultant know the general timeframe that you are planning to offer a class.

As you are reaching out to couples about your class, please keep in mind these tried and true recruiting tips. These are low-cost efforts with maximum results!

Have a plan.

Involve church leadership at the highest level.

Make a list of couples you would like to invite, and then personally invite them.

Go to church leaders, and ask them to personally invite couples who would benefit from the class (not couples in crisis).

If church has website and social media pages, contact your church administrator about posting your class.

Announce during weekend services – personal announcements, bulletins, powerpoint, video, etc.

If there are previous Dynamic Marriage/United graduates in your congregation, enlist them in a grassroots effort, challenging them to personally invite at least 2 couples to the class.

Schedule a preview meeting, ideally 2-4 weeks before the pre-session date. Make it a convenient time (after church tends to work well) and provide refreshments.

Go to Sunday School classes and make a presentation.

Utilize church message sign if available.

Set up a staffed registration table in the busiest area of the church building for before, between, and after worship services.

Consider those outside your church family. Invite neighbors, friends, families that are friends with your children.

TESTIMONIALS

“This course was a “tune up” for me and my spouse. We took the Dynamic Marriage course the first time about 7 years ago. It was a great class where we used a lot of the tools. Taking the class again has been equally enlightening. We were able to dig even deeper, learn even more about each other and strengthen our relationship with not only each other, but with God. This course serves as a base to help us continually grow both emotionally and spiritually in our marriage. Thank you for serving as an integral component of the foundation for a great marriage!”

– LYDIA

“Thank you! This course has changed my marriage. I wish I would have had these insights 10 years ago. I feel like this course has given my spouse and I the ability to weather storms of life & skills to make each other truly happy! I recommend this course to anyone! Thank you!”

“I feel so much more bonded and secure with my husband and our marriage. It’s obvious that all marriages could use a class like this.” – SHANNON

“When my husband and I decided to take this class, I wasn’t sure what to expect. We’ve been married 24 wonderful years. This course has given us a new perspective on our relationship and a deeper understanding of each other. It has given us tools to use in our relationship to take our already wonderful marriage to the next level.”

“The Dynamic Marriage course has been a very useful and necessary investment in our marriage. I feel like I have learned valuable ways of being, not just head knowledge, that will make my marriage better for a long time to come. It has been a wonderful investment of time and money, and I’m glad we took the course. An added bonus is that we now have some new couple friends that will help keep us accountable to making the changes we’ve pledged to make.”

– LANRE

“I must admit that I was the skeptical one in our marriage, but after week 1 my eyes were opened to so much in our marriage! We are so thankful and blessed that our church is able to offer this course for its married couples!”

“We are a congregation of 500+ and growing. As you can imagine a congregation of this size has marriages with “issues”. The Dynamic Marriage Course has helped many, but some couples have deeper issues that go beyond our abilities. That’s where the A New Beginning weekend has been a marriage saver for many of our couples. We believe marriage is a sacred union and every effort must be taken to preserve that relationship. The program has saved all the marriages of those we sent. We highly recommend A New Beginning to any couple who believe their marriage is in need of rescue. I promise it will make a difference and bring you back from the brink of divorce if you put your heart to the task. God can work miracles for you.”
